"To Honor the Memory of Our Absent Memebers"

Elks Memorial Sunday

The First day in December is designated as Elks Memorial Sunday, and it is mandatory for all Elk Lodges to conduct a Memorial service for the members who have passed away during the year.

The Nashua Lodge of Elks has always observed Memorial Sunday with a beautiful and inspirational program to help remember and reflect on those members who have passed on.

Guest Speaker

The Rev. Dr. Robert "Odie" Odierna

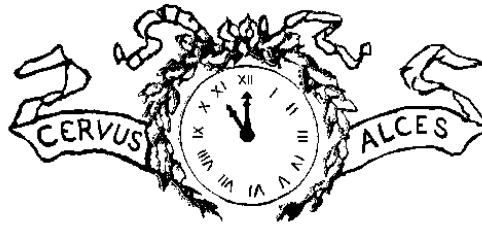

The Church of Good Sheppard -Nashua, NH

Guest Soloist: Stephanie Sgroi

Guest Organist: Jeffery Sgroi

A special remembrance for members of the armed services who died while in defense of our country and those who died at Pearl Harbor 67 years ago on December 7th, 1941. The Roll Call of the Absent and the Altar Service will conclude the program.

*"The Faults Of Our Members,
 We Write Upon The Sand,
 Their Virtues Upon The Tablets
 Of Memory."*
